MORAN FOR GOVERNOR

Is Nominated By Massachusetts Prohibits

IN STATE CONVENTION

"The Man Who Dares" Is the Choice of the Bay State Cold Water Party—Legislature Scored by the Speakers.

Boston, June 29.—District Attorney John B. Moran was nominated as the Prohibition party's candidate for Governor at the State convention held in Boston yesterday.

The threatened movement to place the Rev. Charles A. Crane, D. D., pastor of the People's Temple, in nomination in opposition to Mr. Moran went to pieces when Dr. Crane emphatically declined to stand. He had already written Mr. Moran a letter, expressing hope he would accept the nomination.

The convention opened at 11 o'clock in Pilgrim Hall, Congregational Building, No. 14, Beacon street. Chairman Nichols' statement before the convention regarding Mr. Moran's acceptance of the expected nomination was:

"John B. Moran will be our candidate for Governor. I had a final interview with him in his office this morning before the convention opened and he accepted the nomination on a platform which I submitted to him.

"The platform calls for allegiance to the prohibition cause and for the impartial enforcement of all law and for the exposure of political corruption."

Jonathan H. Lewis of Stoneham was chosen permanent chairman and W. D. Moon of Lynn, secretary of the State committee, was chosen permanent secretary.

In assuming the chair Mr. Lewis said in part:

"I would like to sidestep this speech and get down to the business of the convention. However, I am not 'The man who dares.' I am only a 'friend of him.' (Applause.)

"Political corruption is rife. Roosevelt had repeated declarations to that effect many times, and despite his reference to the muck rake man it remains that we have the muck and need the rake.

"How about Massachusetts? Would a little cleaning up hurt her? Of course there has been considerable 'whitewash' applied up at the State House on Beacon Hill? About everything in sight except the dome has had a thick coat applied, but is that all that is needed?

"Governor Guild of this State writes in a touching way about the moral effect on the young people of the State of the execution of a condemned murderer, but we cannot forget that it was the same Governor who shortly before sent a special message to the Legislature urging the passage of a bill which affords one extra hour of opportunity each day to the factories which furnish us with most of our murderers. I refer to the midnight liquor bill which called for the closing of saloons at midnight instead of one hour earlier. Words are cheap. Acts talk. What is the moral effect of this act on the young people of Massachusetts?"

After reaffirming its loyalty to the Prohibition cause, the convention adopted resolutions condemning the Legislature for passing and the Governor for signing the Touraine, 12 o'clock, abutment, seven, penny express and pharmacy bills. It declared uncompromisingly for prohibition of liquor sales, and deplored the "tendency on part of many State and local officials to wink at violations of the law."

In closing it appealed to the people to support the Prohibition candidates "as a rebuke to faithless officials."

"DOWIE A MONOMANIAC"

But the Alienist Admits His Business Ability.

Chicago, June 29.—John Alexander Dowie was Wednesday declared by Dr. Archibald Church an alienist, to be a monomaniac, although possessed of very great mental activity for business, in his testimony before Judge Landis in the Zion City controversy. The physician declared it to be his belief that Dowie might be insane, and still have mental capacity to accumulate $7,000,000 in seven years.
